

Egg-stra special Easter!

Something that is very reoccurring are the stories from our customers - we are very grateful for this! The one thing that connects all books is the joy and appreciation the reader shows upon receiving a book. In most cases it's something you've never experienced before. A personal book with greetings and stories from friends and family - an everlasting memory!

Forget Easter Eggs - why not create a book for someone you like? Click here to begin.

Think outside the egg – put a beautiful gift certificate in your Easter basket and give the ones around you the possibility to create their own book! Click here to see our gift certificates

The Solentro team wish you all a very Happy Easter!
